

Medical Symposium: Enhancing Civilian Practice Through Contributions of Military Medicine

>> Earn 8 AOA Category Ia CME's

Join a panel of military physicians for an open discussion and informative look at how the military's innovative methods and technological advances in medicine have contributed to today's civilian practice. Stay after the symposium and network with the physicians at a private dinner event.

SYMPOSIUM

Saturday, September 19
0800-1730

Earn 8 AOA Category Ia CME's
Registration form must be submitted prior to event.

Location:
Rocky Vista University
8401 S. Chambers Rd.
Parker, CO 80134

DINNER

Saturday, September 19
1830

Location:
Rocky Vista University

COST

Symposium (includes morning refreshments + lunch): Physicians $65 /
Residents $30 / Students $15
Dinner tickets are $25 each.
Tickets must be purchased in advance.

Proceeds from the symposium and dinner benefit Fisher House, an organization providing "a home away from home" for America's military families during the recovery of wounded and ill service men and women.

CONTACT

For more information, including buying tickets and submitting registration form:
Matt Malivuk
720-879-1222
matthew.malivuk@rockyvistauniversity.org

Sponsored by the RVU Chapter of the Association of Military Osteopathic Physicians & Surgeons